

VANDERBILT
SUITES

Midtown's Most Elegant Event Space

Vanderbilt Suites is ideal for business meetings, social celebrations and corporate gatherings of every kind. Designed by world-famous architect Adam D. Tihany and equipped with state-of-the-art tech capabilities, the 2,200 sq. ft. venue is located in the landmark MetLife Building just steps from Grand Central Terminal.

Vanderbilt Suites accommodates from 20-200 guests and can be used as a single banquet hall or configured into three separate and versatile rooms, ideal for events ranging from breakfast meetings to wedding receptions. Additionally, catering from four Patina Restaurant Group establishments - classic French from Café Centro, modern Spanish and Latin from La Fonda del Sol, Italian and award-winning Neapolitan pizza from Naples 45, rustic Mediterranean from Cucina & Co. - makes our space the perfect choice for your next event.

